

MILLERSBURG

—Miss Mildred Collier left Monday for a three weeks' visit to her uncle, Dr. Floyd Long, and Mrs. Long, of North Western University, Chicago, Ill.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Hurst, of Lexington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hurst, from Thursday until Saturday.

—Millersburg has been visited by three hailstorms during the past week, one last Tuesday, again Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

—The Young Men's Dancing Club will entertain the visitors of the town with a dance at the Opera House this evening, from 9:30 until 3.

—Misses Elizabeth Miller, of Transylvania University, Lexington, and Alma Duke Jones, who is teaching in North Carolina, are at home for the summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Grimes entertained Friday evening about one dozen couple in honor of Miss Nora Brooks, of Winchester, who has been a visitor here since the M. C. commencement, and will remain over until after M. M. 1. commencement.

—At the graduation exercises of the Millersburg College last week announcement was made that Miss Gladys Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bowen, of Carlisle, had made the highest general average of any student in the College during the past year.

—Mrs. Mary Huffman moved Monday to Berry, where she will join her son, Richard Huffman, who has recently located on a farm there. Mrs. Huffman is one of our most influential ladies, and her son one of our most popular young gentlemen. They will do light housekeeping for the present, and we trust that they will return to us in the autumn.

—Three sides of bacon, a couple of hams and other foodstuffs stolen from the meat house of Arris Wiggins, in Nicholas county, were sold in Millersburg, and later recovered. Arris Polard, a young white man, was arrested by Sheriff Parker, of Nicholas county, and taken to Carlisle charged with the theft. His trial will take place at the special term of Circuit Court in June.

—The commencement exercises of M. M. 1. opened formally Sunday at 11 a. m., at which time Dr. E. L. Powell, of the First Christian Church, of Louisville, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. The guests have been arriving for several days, and after a few days of rest with the close of the M. C. commencement, our little city is once more in holiday attire. A good musical program had been arranged for Sunday morning, which served as a beautiful prelude to the address, which followed by Dr. Powell. The main theme of his discourse was life, in its emotional form, the unseen, that which creates the heart throbs, can only be felt, is never seen, and yet lifts us to the highest motive. It was one of the most beautiful discourses ever delivered in Millersburg. The address was about fifty minutes in length. The large audience listened in rapt attention to all that was said. About eight years ago Dr. Powell delivered the literary address here, and so well did he please the people at that time that Col. Best has made several unsuccessful efforts to secure him since then.

The following is a partial list of guests: Miss Lyle Hutchison, Nepton, Mr. and Mrs. Bales DeBell, of Bowling, with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Caldwell; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cunningham, of Cynthiana; Misses Mary Allie Perish, and Lillie Harland, of Clintonville, with Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Current; Miss Avenia Cochran and Mrs. S. E. McClanahan, Nicholasville, with Mrs. Minnie C. Hurst and family; Dr. and Mrs. G. D. Judy, of Lexington, with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Judy; Miss Susan Rhodes, of Elizaville, with Mrs. E. M. Thomason; Mrs. W. C. Daniels and Miss Corinne Collins, of Paris, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Haley, of Paris, with Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Allen, of Winchester, with Mr. G. S. Allen; Miss Loraine Watson, of Georgetown, with Mrs. C. B. Smith;

Miss Jennie Slicer, of Nepton, with Mrs. J. D. Redd; Mr. Charles Carrington, of Ravenna, with Miss Kizzie May McDaniel; Mr. and Mrs. George Watkins and little son, of London, with Mrs. Emma Reynolds; Misses Lyda Rice and Jennie Link, of Hutchison, with Mrs. F. E. Peterson; Mrs. J. Smith Clarke, of Shelbyville, with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Thorne.

MATRIMONIAL.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

—At a dinner given in Lexington, Friday evening, by Miss Edyth Hanna for twelve of her friends the interesting announcement was made of the engagement of her sister, Miss Ethel Collins Hanna, to Dr. Elbridge Lee Snapp, of Paris. The wedding will be an event of the coming month.

The news was an interesting surprise, and was made known during the evening by Miss Louise Detwiller, in a very charming and clever little speech. Congratulations and best wishes followed, and all joined in drinking to the health and prosperity of the attractive couple.

The party was given at the home of Mrs. Albert Faulconer, on Woodland avenue, in Lexington. The rooms were decorated for the occasion with iris, syringos and red roses, carrying out the patriotic colors. Flags and red, white and blue draperies added to the artistic effect of the decorative scheme. During the evening refreshments were served, the table appointments being of special beauty.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hanna, of Cynthiana. She is a very charming and attractive young woman, who is at present making her home with her sister, in Lexington. She was for some time a member of the nurses' staff at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in Paris.

Dr. Snapp is a son of Mrs. Alice Snapp, of Paris, and brother of Dr. Dennis V. Snapp, of the Kentucky Citizen, and Mr. Sherman R. Snapp, Superintendent of a demonstrating crew of the Royal Baking Powder Co., with present headquarters at San Francisco, Calif. and Misses Edna, Gladys and Elizabeth Snapp, of Paris. He has been in the employ of Clarke & Co. and the Ardery Drug Company, in Paris, later going with the J. W. Gayle Drug Co., in Frankfort. He recently resigned his position there and purchased an interest in the drug business of Dr. W. T. Brooks, in Paris, where he will in the future be associated. Dr. Snapp is an excellent young business man of the highest character. THE NEWS extends hearty congratulations in advance of the happy event.

CLARKE—MAUPIN.

—The marriage of Miss Gertrude Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clarke, of London avenue, Lexington, to Mr. Joseph Maupin, of the same city, took place at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. E. Ellis of the Paris Christian church, in this city, Saturday afternoon. The couple were accompanied to Paris by Miss Hazel Forts and Mr. Harry Carle, both of Lexington.

PARMAN—GILBERT.

—Miss Alice Parman, who was for several months one of the nurses on the general staff at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, was married Friday afternoon in Maysville, in the office of County Clerk James Owens by County Judge W. H. Rice, to Mr. Luther Gilbert, of Maysville.

—The marriage was the sequel to a romance which had its beginning at the Hayswood Hospital, in Maysville, several months ago, when the groom underwent a serious surgical operation for the removal of an eye, which had been injured in an accident in one of the Maysville cotton mills.

Miss Parman was the nurse in charge of the ward in which Mr. Gilbert was located, and at the sick bed the spark of love first flamed up. A courtship followed Mr. Gilbert's discharge from the Maysville hospital, and Miss Parman's removal to the Paris institution, the wedding Friday being the climax.

The groom is a very popular young gentleman of Maysville, and is highly esteemed by all who know him. His bride is a native of London, Ky., and while a nurse in the Massie Hospital in Paris, won the lasting friendship of everyone connected with the institution. She was held in high esteem by the patients who came under her care and was regarded as one of the most popular members of the nursing staff.

TAUL—TERWILLIGAN.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Taul, of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Olive Wilkerson Taul, formerly of Paris, to Dr. Clyde B. Terwilligan, of Milford, Ohio, on Saturday, May 19.

Miss Taul, who has been a member of the faculty of the Milford High School and Dr. Terwilligan surprised their many friends by motoring to Maysville, where they were married at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. Brand, pastor of the Baptist church at Maysville.

The bride is a most attractive young woman, a graduate of the Paris High School, and for several terms one of the stars of the High School basketball team. After leaving the Paris High School she attended the State University, where she graduated with the highest honors. For the past two years she has been teaching in the Milford school.

Dr. Terwilligan is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, Medical College, a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity, and was formerly a surgeon in Cincinnati, where he had an extensive practice. For the past two years he has held an official position with the allied armies in France, with the rank of Captain. He returned to America in December.

Dr. and Mrs. Terwilligan expect to go abroad in a short time, he having secured a commission in the United States Army. They will come to Paris for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Taul about June 2.

DEATHS.

HINKLE.

—The body of Anna Hinkle, six-weeks-old daughter of Mr. and Therman Hinkle, who died at the home of her parents, near Little Rock, was taken to Carlisle for interment in the Carlisle Cemetery.

LARUE.

—Mr. Frank Larue, a former resident of Shawhan, died suddenly at his home in Dallas, Texas, Sunday morning. The news was received in a message to Mr. Charles Larue, of Shawhan.

Mr. Larue was well-known here, where he had lived a good part of his life. He was a brother of Mr. Chas. Larue and Misses Lizzie and Tillie Larue, of Shawhan, and Mrs. Preston, of Missouri. He is survived by his wife.

REYNOLDS.

—A long and useful life in the Christian ministry was brought to a close Sunday morning, when Eld. L. H. Reynolds, aged eighty, one of the oldest and most widely-known ministers in this section, passed to his reward in the Great Beyond. His death occurred at the Clark County Hospital, in Winchester, where he had been a patient but one day. Mr. Reynolds' death was the result of the infirmities of age, complicated with pneumonia.

Eld. Reynolds was a native of Little Rock, this county, where he was born eighty years ago. He and his wife celebrated the sixty-first anniversary of their marriage on February 5. He was a pastor of the church at Little Rock and at North Middletown for many years, and had held pastorates in many other places. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Corilla B. Hitch, a native of Bracken county, and the following children: Mrs. Lewis Hagen, of Winchester; Mrs. Minta Hughes, of Nelson county, and Mr. Isaac S. Reynolds, of North Middletown.

The funeral was held at the North Middletown Christian church at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. John Christopherson, of North Middletown, assisted by Revs. Carl Wolfe and J. W. Ligon. The burial followed on the family lot in the North Middletown Cemetery.

The active pall-bearers were John Young, Ben Hopkins, James Clark, Roger Burris, Eddie Burris, Ollie Soper, Elmer Boardman, Jonathan Burris. Honorary, W. S. Jones, T. J. Judy, Dr. R. D. Weaver, E. K. Thomas, Wm. McCray, James Bryant, John Talbott and Will Young.

Facts About The City School

The suggestion has been made that by cutting out the non-resident pupils we might do with fewer rooms and fewer teachers.

If you will read carefully the following facts as to the number and distribution of the non-resident pupils you will see that we could not do without a single room or teacher, even though we should cut out every one of the non-resident pupils.

The High School has seven pupils per room of non-residents.

The Eighth Grade has none.

The Seventh Grade has four.

The Sixth Grade has eight.

The Fifth Grade has seven.

The Fourth Grade has six.

The Third Grade has six.

The Second Grade has twelve.

The First Grade has six.

Now, if we were to refuse to admit any non-residents the largest number removed from any one room would be twelve, which you can readily see would not save us a single room or teacher. But don't overlook the fact that the increase derived from non-residents is over $2,000—enough to hire three teachers.

More About The Increase in Taxes

How much is the assessed valuation of your property?

If it is $500 you would have to pay 50c per year.

If $750 you would pay 75c.

If $1,000 you would pay $1.00.

If $1,200 you would pay $1.25.

If $1,500 you would pay $1.50.

If $1,750 you would pay $1.75.

If $2,000 you would pay $2.00.

If $2,500 you would pay $2.25.

If $3,000 you would pay $3.00.

Is it a fact in order to save 50c to $3.00 per year, you would vote to keep 131 of your own or your neighbor's children in the basement of the City School building?
